Curated Sale

May 2025.

Curator's note

The works presented in this Sales Selection are more than collectible art objects—they are narrative fragments drawn from Chapters, an exhibition that traces the evolution of Frenkie's creative and personal journey. As one of the most influential voices in regional hip-hop, Frenkie has long shaped public discourse through language, rhythm, and resistance. In this exhibition, that voice takes on visual form.

These selected pieces were curated not only for their artistic merit but for the way they encapsulate key moments, symbols, and emotional textures of the wider body of work. Each work stands independently, yet echoes a broader timeline: a visual mixtape of identity, place, and memory.

We invite collectors and supporters to engage with these works not just as static images, but as living documents of cultural commentary—bold, intimate, and uncompromising. Acquiring a work from this selection means taking home a chapter of the story.
